Tammy Weaver	School and Social Strategies for the Child with Autism (Are you struggling with teaching your students independent functioning skills? If so, the first day of this conference is for you! Susan Stokes will present numerous, practical evidence-based techniques using various modes of technology as visual support strategies as well as a unique educational planning guide designed to assist teams in identifying contexts and situations that require adult support. The training will also highlight applications galore! Come discover how the most popular form of technology, the iPhone/iTouch/iPad can make a difference in supporting a person with ASD. Numerous innovative applications that will revolutionize your intervention strategies for people with ASD will be demonstrated with "in your pocket" technology for communication, social relations, planning/organization, academics and relaxation/self-regulation, will be shown. Day two, Kari Dunn Buron will connect learning style and problems of social understanding to symptoms of social anxiety, relationship building and challenging behavior. Strategies to address such behavior difficulties will be discussed as they relate to individuals across the autism spectrum and of all ages. Come learn interventions from the author of "The Incredible 5 Point Scale," "When My Worries Get Too Big," "A 5 Could Make Me Lose Control," and "A 5 Is Against The Law!")	King of Prussia, PA	4/7-8/11	2	200.00	L	625.00
