Required Textbooks and/or Other Reading/Research Materials

The following texts will be the primary texts used throughout the year. There will be additional readings to complement vocabulary and grammar and we will use Internet sites for current information.

Realidades III by Peggy Boyles, Myriam Met, and Richard Sayers. Pearson Prentice-Hall, 2008

Un grabado de Goya, Kay Jarvis-Sladky, EMC publishing, 2008.

La Catrina, David Curland, Prentice Hall, 1998.

Course Requirements:

Students are expected to complete all projects, assignments and tests. Students must participate in oral class activities such as communicative or paired activities, role-play and dialogues. Spanish IV students are required to maintain an organized 3-ring binder or a notebook and folder. Students are to bring a covered textbook, workbook and notebook to class daily. Good attendance and consistent practice is very important in foreign language study.

Grade Components/Assessments:

Grades will be based on categories. Homework and class work will comprise 5%, oral participation 20% , quizzes 20%, projects and writing 25% and tests 30%.

Participation is a critical component of foreign language learning. Therefore, students are expected to participate in class as often as possible. They will receive a grade for participation approximately every 10 class days. The grade will be out of ten points. Below is the grading scale:

Actual tallies	Participation grade
10+ tallies	10/10
9 tallies	9.5/10
8 tallies	9/10
7 tallies	8.5/10
6 tallies	8/10
5 tallies	7.5/10
4 tallies	7/10
3 tallies	6.5/10
2 tallies	6/10
1 tallies	5.5/10
0 tallies	5/10

Each marking period is worth 20% of a student's overall grade. The midterm and final exam are each worth 10% of a student's overall average:

Quarter 1	20%
Quarter 2	20%
Midterm	10%
Quarter 3	20%
Quarter 4	20%
Final	10%
