

Superintendent Objective Performance Standards (Instructional) 2022-2023

- During the 2022-2023 school year the district will implement Foundations, Geodes, and Read Well in grades K-3.
- During the 2022-2023 school year the district will analyze and recommend a core reading program in grades k-3.
- During the 2022-2023 school year the district will implement expanded dual enrollment course offerings.
- During the 2022-2023 school year the district will collect and analyze student achievement data and provide a comprehensive public report in November, 2022.

The Southern Lehigh School District Board of Education completed the superintendent's 2022-2023 evaluation and determined that the objective performance standards were successfully achieved.