Ken Jordan	(Dr. Heidi Hayes Jacobs, Executive Director of the Curriculum Mapping Institute and President of Curriculum 21, is an internationally-recognized expert and consultant in the fields of curriculum and instruction on issues and practices pertaining to curriculum mapping, dynamic instruction, and 21st century strategic planning. She has taught courses at Columbia University's Teachers College in New York City since 1981, and she is the author of multiple books in education, including The Curriculum Mapping Planner: Templates and Tools for Effective Professional Development, co-authored with Dr. Ann Johnson; and Curriculum 21: Essential Education for a Changing World. As one of the leading voices in the national Common Core State Standards (CCSS) initiative, Dr. Jacobs believes, "The Standards are a forward-thinking set of ideas just waiting for a place to live in our classrooms and in our school year." Her recent work has focused on integrating the CCSS into local school curriculum, and during her presentation she will share specific strategies that educators can use to translate the Standards into curriculum units, to map the Standards, and to create and implement Standards-aligned activities and assessments that will help ensure teacher effectiveness and student learning in each 21st century classroom. Dr. Jacobs is known for her dynamic and thought-provoking workshops, and this day with her promises to be lively, engaging, and extremely relevant as Pennsylvania educators face the challenge of guaranteeing teacher effectiveness through the process of implementing the Common Core in PA.)				0.00	L	234.00
