Lynn Yocum	2017 NAEA National Convention: The Challenge of Change The NAEA National Convention is an annual event providing substantive professional development services that include the advancement of knowledge in all sessions, events, and activities for the purpose of improving visual arts instruction in American schools. As such, it is world's largest art education convention. The three-day convention includes over 1,000 participatory workshops, panels, seminars for job alike groups... research reports, discussions, exhibits, and tours... keynote addresses by world-acclimated educators, artists, researchers, and scholars... with the opportunity to connect with your colleagues from all over world. Each year, some 110-200 exhibitor booths displaying the latest art textbooks, high-tech software, prints, slides, curriculum materials, equipment, and programs, as well as the latest studio and art history media are made available for examination and review by art educator delegates. It is a professional development opportunity to update oneself on the vista of state-of-the art material to advance visual art instruction in local art programs. All sessions and events are 10 percent content-oriented and substantively based. There are no non-content functions such as golf, sightseeing, shopping tours, and the like. Sessions are scheduled daily from 8:00 am to 11:00 pm	NYC, NY	3/2-3/17	2	200.00	L	365.00
