8th Grade United States History I, 1600-1850 2014-15

Course Description:

This course reviews the development of America from the Age of Exploration leading up to the Civil War. The threads of America's economic, cultural, social and political history are woven together as these events occurred in the natural course of our history. The student is introduced to reading comprehension, research and critical thinking skills along with a variety of other learning experiences to develop a more mature understanding of United States' history. All of this is done to bring about an understanding of the role of geography in the history and development of America.
