

Mrs. Smillie's Kindergarten Newsletter!

February 24, 2017

Classroom News

This was a great week! I hope everyone enjoyed the Long Weekend and this beautiful weather!

The AM Class did an amazing job eating Lunch in the Cafeteria last week! They were all Pouncer Pals!

Kindergarten is getting ready to celebrate read across America next week. We created A Cat in the Hat project for our Hallway Bulletin Board.

We learned and practiced a new App on the I pads: Primary Writer. The children can select their own writing page and write a story using the Key Board.

King and Queen

Julianna can draw with Magic

Markers!

Aanya can sing a song!

Treyton can Hula Hoop!

Kayden can dance!

Language Arts

Theme: Outdoor Adventures

Words to Know: go, here, soon, they, up, for

Phonemic Awareness: Blend and segment Phonemes.

Target Skills: Cause and effect

Target Strategy: Question

Our New Alpha Friend: Dudley Duck

Writing: Opinion

Every child met in their Guided Reading Groups! We read from our Kindergarten Reader. The stories consist of many words that need to be decoded. Please continue to do the Weekly HW. This is a great way to help in building fluency.

Please be sure your little one reads the GR book to you when it goes home.

This week we read:

Nicky and the Rainy Day

Sheep Take a Hike

Owl babies

Who Sank the Boat

The Cat in the Hat

Math

We continued Topic 9.

9-4 Writing Number Sentences for 6 and 7

9-5 Making 8 and 9.

9-6 Writing Number Sentences for 8 and 9.

9-7 Making 10

Info

This week we started a new Kindergarten Program-Owl babies. Each child will take home an owl from this beloved Book for a 3 night Sleepover. Info went home about this! GET READY!!

There is NO School March 10

