

Mrs. Smillie's Kindergarten Newsletter!

February 10, 2017

Classroom News

We had a great week! How wonderful to have our first and so far only Snow Day! Kindergarten created fun Puppy Dogs out of heart shapes. These are hanging in our classroom to help us get ready for Valentine's Day

All the children chose what they wanted from the School Store as a result of the earned Pouncer Paw Tickets.

We drew a picture of "What Hopewell Means to Me. This is a contest for the Yearbook.

WE drew and recorded our response to a book we read. Next week we will use Google Classroom to submit our response.

Language Arts

Theme: Earth Science

Words to Know: will, that, be, into, your, who.

Phonemic Awareness: Blend Phonemes, segment.

Target Skills: Author's Purpose

Target Strategy: analyze/evaluate

Our New Alpha Friend: Reggie Rooster

Writing: Opinion

Every child met in their Guided Reading Groups! We read from our Kindergarten Reader. The stories consist of many words that need to be decoded. Please continue to do the Weekly HW. This is a great way to help in building fluency.

King and Queen

Treyton can Hula Hoop!

Amber can do a forward roll!

This week we read:

Atlantic

One Dog Canoe

This is Not My Hat

Valentine Friends

Math

We completed the Topic 8 Test

We completed the 4-8 Benchmark Test

Info

Valentine Boxes are Due on Monday.

Please note the Day your child's Cards are due.

Tuesday is Valentine's Day!

We still have off on Friday 2/17!

