

Mrs. Smillie's Kindergarten Newsletter!

December 16, 2016

Classroom News

- This was a great week. ☺
- We are still counting the days until Christmas and PJ Stuffy Day.
- Kindergarten enjoyed a special story time with the 7th graders via the internet.
- All of the students have been crowned. Look for new information about our second round of Crowning beginning in 2017!
- Helpful Tips on how to practice Sight Words went home. Please try some of them as we will soon be learning 6 words/week.

Centers this week:

- Math: 10 frames to 30
- Guided Reading
- I Pads
- Writing
- Seatwork: Roll a Snowman

King and Queen

AM

PM

Orianna

Ellie

Zachery

Austin

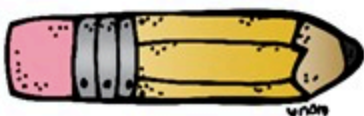

Math

Topic 6 Numbers to 10A

6-1 Counting to 30

6-2 About How Many?

Language Arts

Theme: Weather

Word to Know: with, my.

Phonemic Awareness: Blend Phonemes, Final Sounds

Target Skills: Conclusions

Target Strategy: Monitor/Clarify

Our New Alpha Friend: Nyle Noodle (letter Nn)

Writing: Narrative

This week we read:

- Storm is Coming
- The Gingerbread Baby
- Snow
- Night Animals
- Bear Stays up for Christmas
- Mooseltoe

Info

12/22 is PJ Stuffy Day. Children can wear their pajamas to school and bring their favorite stuffy

