

Weekly News from Our Kindergarten Class

September 16, 2016

This was a great week!

We are practicing many new skills each day. The children are adjusting nicely to routines and the structure of the classroom. They are making new friends, playing nicely, and working hard!

Look for the Weekly Homework starting next week! A letter will go home explaining all about this!

We enjoyed some Outside Play time this week!

We watched a few stories on DVD. They are Back to School stories.

We created apples by paper tearing. Each child chose what kind he/she wanted make.

Have a nice weekend!

We continued our lessons for Topic 1. We practiced reading and writing 1,2,,and 3 . We identified how the amount doesn't change when we change the arrangement of things

If your child is having some trouble writing numbers, please practice at home.

We are all enjoying learning about our Friends as they are crowned!

Crowned King and Queen
Hunter Ruby

Information about Open House will be coming home from Hopewell.

If your child is absent you must send in an excuse note. Otherwise it will be UNEXCUSED.

In our Language Activities the children listened to many new Rhymes. They practiced various Concepts of Print including recognizing Environmental Print Book Handling skills, distinguishing between letters and numbers, and recognizing their names as well as practicing writing their names.

They completed more pages in the Readers Notebook, played games (Letter BINGO) and Blended and Segmented Syllables.
